

IF ...

Second Conditional

Fill in the countries according to the rhymes:
Greece – Spain – France – Germany – Japan

1. If I could be King of,
I wouldn't brush my hair for aunts.
2. If I could be King of,
I would eat chocolate all in one piece.
3. If I could be King of,
I would do all I can.
4. If I could be King of,
I would give everyone a penny.
5. If I could be King of,
I would take my hat off in the rain.

1. If I could be King of France,
I woudn't brush my hair for aunts.
2. If I could be King of Greece,
I woud eat chocolate all in one piece.
3. If I could be King of Japan,
I woud do all I can.
4. If I could be King of Germany,
I woud give everyone a penny.
5. If I could be King of Spain,
I woud take my hat off in the rain.

IF ...

SECOND CONDITIONAL

per esprimere un'ipotesi poco probabile, irreal e o immaginaria
al presente o al futuro

IF ...

If I had money,	I would live in a mansion.
If I knew her number,	I would call her.
If I were King of France	I would not brush my hair.
If we won five million pounds,	we would buy a yacht.

If clause

IF + Past Simple

Proposizione principale

WOULD + forma base

IF ...

If I were rich,

I would have lots of servants.

If I were a boy,

I would use my dad's motorcycle.

Quando la condizione è impossibile o molto improbabile, nella If clause si può usare were invece di was.

Si usa questa struttura anche per dare consigli.

ex. If I were you, I would help your friend.

IF ...

If I didn't play football,

I would travel the world with my parents.

If I didn't ask for help,

I wouldn't pass my exam.

In queste frasi il verbo della If clause è negativo.

Cosa noti? É ancora vero che la situazione ipotetica non si è realizzata?

And now it's time for you to try!!

;-)